Code of Conduct: The following rules and regulations become binding upon acceptance of this contract between the applicant (Exhibitor) and his/her employees and NAPR/NALTO®

You must review and agree to all rules and regulations before your application is submitted.

Code of Conduct

NAPR/NALTO® is committed to providing a safe and welcoming experience for all participants, regardless of race, ethnicity, disability, religion, political affiliation, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, and any other distinguishing characteristic. We do not tolerate discrimination, intolerance, harassment, aggression, or ill will of any kind at any NAPR/NALTO® event, either in person or via electronic media.

We expect all event participants, presenters, exhibitors, sponsors, and staff to:

- Remain positive, friendly, and welcoming to others at all times
- Recognize that this event is a place for diversity of thought, organization, and individuals; as such, respect and inclusivity for all is expected
- Refrain from advertising or soliciting products/services other than in your sponsored session or the virtual exhibit hall
- Be alert and report any discriminatory, harassing, aggressive, or exclusionary behavior or speech to event staff immediately

Anyone engaged in unacceptable behavior is subject to expulsion from the event, in NAPR/NALTO®'s sole discretion, without refund.

If you are being harassed, notice that someone else is being treated poorly, or have additional concerns, please email NAPR or NALTO® Headquarters.

By signing this form, we agree to all terms and conditions included in this code of conduct.

Cancellation Policy: A $75 cancellation fee will be assessed for all cancellations received by February 1, 2021. No refunds will be issued for cancellations after February 1, 2021. Cancellations must be submitted by e-mail to swenger@kmgnet.com.
